INSTRUCTIONS—This form is to be completed in the case of every discharged soldier whose claim to pension, on account of disability, is to be submitted for the consideration of the Pensions and Disabilities Board.

This section should be completed in the Hospital at which a man is attending at the time of his examination by a Medical Board, or, if the man is not in Hospital, by the Medical Officer of the Unit or Command Depot. Dear Sir

I am writing to you in reference to my back Separation Allowance which I put in an application for twelve months and I only received Fifty dollars. I have seen Mr Howley and he can't give me any satisfactory answer. The facts of my case Sir are.

My Brother enlisted in November 1916 and I received his separation Allowance when it first started in January 1918 and I received it up to the time he was discharged in 1919.

now Sir what I am applying ^{for} is his Separation Allowance from the time he enlisted in November 1916 to January 1918. As I understand that ~~you~~ receive this money from the date that he enlists. As he is the only support of me and ~~and~~ an invalid sister.

I would be much obliged if by week ending or sooner you could give me some satisfactory answer

I remain
yours respectfully
Agnes Tobin
