Dear Sir:-

I wrote to Sergeant F. Bennett a week or so ago enquiring whether my pay-book had been received from France and if not to notify the paymaster to that effect (the fact being that my tunic, containing the pay-book, somehow got mislaid in the trench while I lay waiting to be removed).

To my surprise Frank replied from Ayr kindly suggesting that I should write you, mentioning his name.

Would you, therefore, be so kind

607

as to let me know whether the page book has arrived & oblige

Yours respectfully
