We went over at Poelcappelle. I knew Voisey of A.Co. and he was in the first wave. I went over in front of the second wave and I remember passing by Voisey's dead body. I turned him over to see who he was and to make quite sure he was killed. I believe he had been wounded in the first place by M.G. bullet and that he went on but was knocked out by a shell. We took our objective and the ground on which he lay was in our possession. (

* Extract from Casualties received from Pay and Record Office London, dated 15th, 1918.

959, Pte. L.M. Veisey (Missing 9/10/18)

"We went over at Peelcappelle. I knew Veisey of A. Co., and he was killed in the first wave. I went over the front of the second wave and I remember passing Veisey's dead body. I turned him over to see who he was and to make quite he was killed. I believe he had been wounded in the first place by M.G. bullet and that he went on but was knocked out by a shell. We took our objective and the ground on which he lay was in our possession. "
