St. John's,

August 26th, 1918.

Captain Tait,

Deputy District Officer Commanding,

City.

Dear Sir:

I belong to Cape Broyle and fished with my father there the season, and we secured over one hundred quintals of fish. The fish is now in bulk, not having been "washed out." It is not possible to hire help to cure it and my father needs my help very urgently in order to cure the produce of the voyage. If I should be able to help him in the work it will mean that the voyage will be worth a good deal to my home; otherwise, very serious loss will ensue.

I most respectfully ask that leave be given me to help my father in curing the produce of the season's fishing voyage.

Yours respectfully,
