I have the honour to recommend that the above mentioned Officer be promoted to Acting Captain with effect from June 1st, 1919. I would have recommended this promotion at an earlier date, but could not owing to his being off duty in hospital. He has been in order for promotion by seniority, and further, his work whilst attached to this Department, for over twelve months, has been carefully performed, and I consider he is deserving of promotion.

DEPARTMENT OF MILITIA

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND

June 14th, 1919

To: Paymaster

From: Chief Staff Officer,

Lieut. W.V. Warren informed me verbally that his Subsistence Allowance had been discontinued from the date that he entered hospital. In furtherance of our conversation of last night, I am now stating for your information that Subsistence Allowance referred to should be continuous; it has been the practice in our Regiment all through the war to allow Mess Allowance to be paid to an Officer when in hospital.
