Sir

I have pleasure in intimating that I have known Miss Margaret Taylor for the last three years when she came to reside here with her mother. Her father is, I understand, employed as a Mine Sweeper; and has been absent from home for the last two years.

This information is, I understand, required in order to obtain your consent to the marriage of Miss Taylor to Pte W. E. West, at present stationed at Hazley-Dun Camp, Winchester; and I know of no reason why that consent should be with the 15.

I am

Sir

Referring to the asking you to arrange for my passage to Newfoundland.

I am afraid I must ask you to arrange for 3rd class instead of 1st, as I won't have enough money to pay the difference.

That is to say, unless you could kindly advance the necessary amount.

I would be very glad if you could do so, sir, as I rather dread the thought of travelling third, having heard about it from friends who are already over there.

I only received allotment money

Can you please tell me why?
It has made things rather

Anxiously awaiting your

Sir

I thank you for sending forms for passport, so promptly.

I think it would be best to explain to you why I am so anxious to go over just now.

My husband (26; Pte. W. E. West) wrote & told me that men of the first 500, were to have 2 months furlough to Newfoundland^{Set} & he expected to be leaving at an early date, but didn't think he could get me with him.

I was told, however, through another source that wives could get if they applied for their own passports.
Therefore I made application, as I am anxious to go with him, & meet his people.

Will you be so kind as to tell me, if,

With reference to your letter (6335): please understand that if you go to Newfoundland with your husband, you must go with the assurance that it will be impossible for you to return during the period of the war, unless for very urgent reasons, agreeable to the Newfoundland authorities. Furthermore, you cannot travel there again at the expense of the Newfoundland Government. Kindly write immediately and inform me that you fully understand these facts.

I must thank you very

I certainly did not understand

Sir, My husband
to 25th Lance Corp Wm E. West, wishes me to join him in Newfoundland.

Perhaps you will remember that I was granted my passport, when he went home on furlough, but as you explained to me, that I could not return to Scotland, while the war lasted, I did proceed at the time, as I expected him to come back, & there was no use me going
if I couldn't get back with him.

Will you please tell me

if my passport is still available
now, or will I have to get a new one. Also, will you please arrange a passage
for me early in January.
I don't want to go till after the New Year but as soon as possible (after) & would like to travel along with the wife of Corp. Wm Shaw.
We wish to pay the difference & travel 1st Class, if this can be arranged.

Yours Respectfully

Colonel Rendell

Dear Sir,

We understand that there is some Government land between Reid's track here, & the A. N. D. Coy's boundaries. We would like to get a piece if the Government would grant it to my husband as an ex-service man. (On 25 W. E. West.)

We invested all my husband's gratuity in ground in St. Johns, in partnership with his father & started to build, but owing to lack of work & bad times we lost all.

My husband is now employed with the A. N. D. Coy. but we have always been anxious to own a homestead of our own.

I have agricultural knowledge & experience & he is a practical carpenter & could build & do all fencing & joinery etc.

It would take a year or two before we could get things into swing but we are anxious to secure ground handy to his work, so that we could be making some progress.

Can you please help or advise us how to proceed in the matter.

We would be so grateful if you could

Yours Respectfully

Margaret West-
