To the Paymaster:
Royal Wfld. Regiment.

Dear Sir:

I am now staying at the Military Hospital, Clifden Road, Clapton, London. E. 5. when I was wounded, I lost my pay book. I thought, where it might be returned to the pay & Record Office, as I feel sure it was taken from me at the G. G. S. or Hospital in France. It is now over a month since I was last paid and I am badly in need of some money. As I lost everything I had when I was wounded. Would you please see to it, and try and get me some money at the earliest possible date. As I am badly in need of it.

Greenspond.

Dear Dr:-

I have to acknowledge your communication of March 19th, with reference to the case of Frank White.

I cannot understand why people think that White has not received a square deal. I think White will tell you that everything we can possibly do, has been done.

It was thought that some special treatment would help him, and the opinion of the Medical Board was asked, at his last appearance before them, but their opinion did not recommend it.

If it can be shown that sending him to Canada will assist him in any way, we shall be glad to do so.

I would advise White to come on here as soon as the Steamers are running and see us.

You will understand that he has been paid a total Pension practically since his discharge.

I appreciate very much your interest in the men, and welcome any suggestions from you.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

Sgd. W.H. Parsons,
Secretary.

PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE,
ST JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND.

March 31, 1920.

Dear Colonel Rendell:

Would you kindly look into the case of Frank White, ex-soldier, of Greenspond. He has recently had his pension cut. He cannot possibly support and maintain himself. There is no hope whatever of securing employment just at this particular season of the year, though in a month or two he will be able to do something.

I have no knowledge of the facts, but the above is the situation as recently laid before me.

Very truly yours,
