Dear Sir, -

I have been informed that some people who have had sons killed in the war have been receiving all their money if this is the case I also would like to receive the same as I had a son killed and I still only receive half of his money the same as when he was living.

If others get the whole of it why cannot I get it also, as I need it badly.

My sons name was Hollie White.

Please reply.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter of July 31st. to the Minister of Militia, will you kindly inform me who the party is that is receiving full pay on account of their deceased son, as we have no record of any such procedure in this office.

The Procedure is, that allotments are continued when payable to the parents until such time as their case is considered for Pension, or until their case is disposed of the allotment only is continued.

Yours truly,
