Rev. Canon White,

Rev. and Dear Sir,-

Referring to your letter of February, 11th., to Major Rendell, I beg to state, that we have been informed by the Paymaster at London, that it takes a period of at least six months after a soldier's decease, to acquire all the information necessary to the correct finalising of his account. I know that Canadian regulations provide, a period of eight months.

It is regrettable that such a long delay should occur, but I have no doubt you will readily understand, that where there are such great numbers of men to be dealt with, all matters pertaining to them, must, of necessity, take considerable time for adjustment.

I shall lose no time in having your son's estate Administered for and payment made, when I have received statement of his final account, from the Chief Paymaster, London.

Yours faithfully,

Capt. & Paymaster.

St. John's.

Feb: 11th 1918.

Major W. F. Rendell,
C.S.O.

Dear Sir,

Referring again to your letter NO 3048 with regard to a parcel addressed to 3048 Sergt. R.A. White now held in the Record Office, London. As Lieut. Dickie is not in France, I should like the parcel to be sent to any officer now with the Battalion at the front, with the request that he hand it to any N.C.O. or private to whom the skin boots might be useful while serving in the fighting area.

Yours very truly
W. Charles White.

P.S. As I am anxious to settle up the affairs of the late 3048 Sergt. R.A. White I should consider it a favour to be informed when I may hope to have forwarded to me any documents or papers he may have left with Regimental Authorities before being sent to the front. I understand that soldiers usually leave some such documents when proceeding on active service. W.C.W.

March 21, 1919

Right Rev. & Dear Sir:-

I have the honour to the request of Major Parsons to reply to the third paragraph of your letter dated March 15.

In this you asked if any information can be given regarding a supposed document left by your son, disposing of any property or money he may have had at the time of his death; and also what was due to him at that date.

I regret to inform your Lordship, that so far, the information required is not available, as no statement of your late son's account has yet been received from our London Office. Just as soon, however, as it comes into our possession, we will advise the Minister of Justice, for the purpose of having Administration granted.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
