Dear Sir: 4

Effects #5475 Pte. A. Winsor.

With reference to your communication of 23rd instant to the Hon. the Colonial Secretary. I placed the matter before the O.C. Depot, who advises me that the Officer in charge of the hospital reports that all the personal effects of your son that were present with him, were forwarded to his home in the case with the body by the undertaker. I am not in a position to state just what these effects were.

In a great many cases, when men come into barracks as soldiers and are issued with regimental kit and equipment, they are in the habit of leaving their civil dress and some of their personal effects in the homes of their friends in the city and elsewhere for safekeeping. Consequently on the death of a soldier it is impossible to trace the whereabouts of his civil effects unless the names of his friends are known.

Possibly you may know some of his friends at

St. Johns, and they may be able to give you information with regard to many of his civil effects that are not accounted for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Major.

District Officer Commanding.

Newfoundland.

Daniel Winsor Esq.,

Wesleyville.

Effects of 5475 Pte. Augustus Winsor (deceased)

Reference above - Pte. Winsor died at the M.I.D. Hospital on June 23rd, 1918, and the Sergeant in charge reports that all the personal effects then present with him were forwarded to his home with the body. No receipt, however, was obtained from the Undertaker in his case.

Difficulties arising from lack of procedure of that kind are now avoided, as instructions are issued to the effect that all personal effects, save clothes sufficient to cover the body, are to be forwarded to Orderly Room, Depot, with an inventory of same.

ANSWERED

In this connection I should like to state that in a great many cases when men come into Barracks as soldiers and are issued with Regimental Kit and Equipment, they are in the habit of leaving all their civilian dress and some of their personal effects at the homes of friends in the City, or elsewhere, for safe-keeping. Consequently on the death of a man it is impossible to trace the whereabouts of his civilian effects, unless the names of his friends were known.

However, by means of a thorough inventory system this can be avoided.

Effects of 5475 Pte. Augustus Winsor (deceased)

Reference above, I annex herewith report from Military Hospital stating his personal effects went forward with body. I note that Mr. Winsor enumerates a number of articles that he claims his son had in his possession when he died, but unless they were in his kit bag, nobody would know anything about them. Cases have occurred of relatives claiming personal effects, which on investigation were found to have been removed from Barracks to the home of a friend in St John's for safe keeping before the soldier was taken sick. Consequently it is impossible to trace such cases, unless one is familiar with the names of his friends.

It is more than likely this is what happened in Winsor's case, if his effects were not with his body.

#5475 Pte. Aug. Winsor (Deceased)

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that this Department has received the consent of the father of the above named soldier to treat his grave as a War Grave. With this end in view this Department is anxious to have the work completed before the frost arrives and, if possible, we would prefer to have the work done by a local man from Wesleyville, if one can be found with thorough knowledge of concrete work.

I am enclosing a circular letter which may be of use to the contractor and will give the dimensions of the curb. If needed we will ship the cement and lumber from here.

I may say that the headstone has not yet arrived but provision will be left in the head of the curb to set the stone as soon as it arrives.

For your information, the above soldier is buried in the Meth. Cemetery at Wesleyville.

If you will certify the bills when the work is finished and send them to us, payment will be made immediately.

Your kind attention to this matter will be much appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Lieut.
