#2896 Sgt. M.G. Winter.

I enclose correspondence in connection with the marginally named soldier, at present on leave in the United States.

If it is possible to have this man boarded without his having to return to Newfoundland I shall be glad if this can be arranged.

Please advise me what action you are taking in the matter with return of correspondence for filing.

Sgt. M.G. Winter M.M.

I enclose communication from the marginally named soldier relative to his discharge.

Will you look up his papers and have same reviewed by the Medical Officer in order that it may be ascertained whether it is likely that Sgt. Winter will be found unfit for General Service. In this case arrangements might be made through the D.M.S. to have him boarded at New York, in order to ascertain whether any pensionable disability exists.

If it is considered that he would be fit for General Service, he could be granted conditional leave under the usual conditions. His discharge to be confirmed when final demobilization orders are received.

Will you write Sgt. Winter advising him of the position, and instructing him that it will be in order to take up civilian employment, subject to the regulations.

Reference your communication of the 20th inst. concerning the above named N.C.O. and his discharge - there are at present no medical papers of his in possession at the Depot.

I suggest, therefore, that the Director of Medical Services arrange to have him boarded at New York, supplying written details of his case as far as can be ascertained, in order to obtain his medical category. He could be disposed of as you advise, either finally or conditionally.

I think Major Parsons knows his case and can supply particulars in lieu of medical papers.

I shall withhold writing to Sergt. Winter until further advice from you.

2. My wounds which are bothering me and which need attention could be treated
