Dear Madam:-

Your letter of Jan. 5th was duly received and placed before the Separation Allowance Board of Review for their consideration. The Board felt sympathetically inclined in your case, but regret that they are unable to exceed the regulations which allow for Separation Allowance to be paid when the third son has enlisted. This has been done in your case, and I regret that nothing further can be done.

Dear Colonel Rendell,

I had one son, my eldest and main support, Frank Woodford #364 who enlisted in August 1914 and was killed July 1st 1916; my second and third eldest also went overseas in 1917. I have received Separation Allowance for one of my boys from 1917, but I understand I am entitled to this allowance since my first son enlisted in 1914, roughly about 3 years allowance.

I am sadly in need of this money. I have three young girls attending school; my husband was placed in ^{the} Lunatic Asylum about a month ago - he has been an invalid for some years - and there is very little hope of him ever being cured. Will you kindly look into this matter at your earliest convenience

Dear Sir,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received a cablegram from the Record Office, London, intimating that your son, Private Frank Woodford, had been Killed in Action on the 1st July.

Permit me to express on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, the sincerest sympathy with you at this time. While we all sorrow at the loss of loved ones, yet it will be no doubt be some consolation to you to think that your boy loyally answered the call of King and Country, fought bravely and well and fell with his face to the foe in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. He has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare and now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory. His name will be emblazoned upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. We are proud of our gallant lads and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the Call of Duty came. When the Victory has been won and Peace again reigns it will be a comfort to you to think that, in this great achievement, your gallant lad bore no small part, and gave of himself even to the uttermost.

I trust that you may have at this time the presence and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With the sincerest sympathy,
Believe me to be,
Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.
