

Woodruffe, John Sheldon, Regt. No. O-164

Distinguished Service Order

London Gazette, September 16th 1918

Action Date, April 1918 - Armentieres

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in commanding his battalion in a very difficult situation, and under heavy fire during ten days' operations. On one occasion he rallied and reformed troops under heavy shell fire, and led them to the attack, re-establishing the line at a very critical moment. He showed great gallantry in handling his command.
