Dear Madam,

I regret to inform you that your son, No. 2113, Private Harry L. Young, who was officially reported missing October 12th, 1916, is now officially believed to have been killed in action on that date.

I desire to express to you on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, sincerest sympathy in this time of sorrow. We feel the loss of our loved ones, but it will, no doubt, be some consolation to you to think that your son willingly answered the call of King of Country, did his part nobly, and fell, facing the foe, in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. Though he has laid down the earthly weapons of warfare, he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory, and his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and will be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow countrymen. When the Victory is won and Peace reigns again upon the earth, it will be a comforting thought to you that in this glorious achievement he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the Grace and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Mrs. Ellen Young,
Greenspond.

March 29, 1917.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 22nd instant, I regret to say that no further news respecting your son, No. 2113, Private Harry L. Young, has been received since my message of November 10th last, which stated that he was officially reported missing on October 12th.

The Pay and Record Office, London, have instructions to take all possible steps to procure news of those men who have been reported missing and the fact that nothing further has been received from them respecting your son would indicate that up to the present their enquiries have been fruitless. It seems reasonable to suppose that, if your son were either a prisoner or an inmate of a hospital in Germany sufficient time has elapsed wherein to receive news to that effect.

Yours faithfully,

Colonial Secretary.

Mrs. Ellen Young,
Grenspond.

Grenspond,

MARCH 26th 1920.

Mrs. Ellen Young,
Greenspond.

Dear Madam:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 18th, in which you state that you are unable to fill in the Cemetery Register Form of your son, the late 2113 Pte. H.L. Young.

As yet we have received no information regarding his burial place, but no doubt the Imperial War Graves Commission will be successful in locating it. Therefore, I should be glad if you would fill in the spaces which I have pencilled.

Referring to the Personal Inscription, I may say that the number of letters allowed is sixty six, less the number of spaces between the words.

I am returning Cemetery Register Form herewith.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut. Colonel,
Chief Staff Officer.

Dear

Sorry, but I cannot fill in the slip that you sent concerning my son's grave. I have made enquiries about it and is still writing but it seems as if its not to be found. If I should get any information about the grave I will let you know.

Yours Faithfully
(Mrs) Ellen Young
